Introductory Note

This, the third volume of Abstracts of Wills of New Jersey, includes wills, administrations and guardianships from Jan. 1, 1751, to Dec. 31, 1760, a period of ten years. The matter was mostly prepared many years ago. The Editor has had added by another hand such omissions as were found by comparison with the published "Index of Wills, Inventories," etc., but has not personally made the Abstracts, and is not responsible for their accuracy. He has simply made the text available for the printer, as the Abstracts were not in the necessary technical shape for that purpose. As the Abstracts have been made by different persons employed, they are not always uniform in style, but alike give the necessary facts.

For the information of the curious it may be stated that Bibles, books and looking-glasses of that period, which have come down in families, are now greatly prized by possessors, and it is, doubtless, for that reason that these articles are so often noted in the transcripts made of inventories, and sometimes in wills.

The proper names of persons and places are believed to be given as in the originals. This early period was one, however, when names were spelled so indifferently that, in the case of the surnames of persons in heavy boldface type, arranged alphabetically, the reader may have to consider various ways of spelling in order to discover certain of the various surnames.

The Index does not repeat the surnames of those whose wills, etc., are abstracted, except in the instances where alternative spellings, in parentheses, are so extremely divergent from the alphabetical arrangement that they may not be otherwise discovered. Such alternative spellings, however, are not made by the Editor but by the abstracters and are not always to be considered as correct.

The total number of wills, intestacies, etc., abstracted for this volume is about 2400.

This publication is made possible by a Legislative appropriation of 1923.

Calendar of New Jersey Wills

NOTE.—The books cited as Libers 1, 2, 3, etc., are of West Jersey wills. Those cited as Libers A, B, C, etc., are of East Jersey wills. Where matters beside recorded wills, such as inventories, accounts, etc., are noted, the originals may be found in the proper envelopes (arranged by counties), reference to which is made in the volumes (three volumes) entitled "Index to Wills," published by the Secretary of State in 1912 and 1913, which should always be consulted in case originals are to be referred to. Where the chief matter is not of record in books the envelope numbers are given herewith, although in Bergen, Essex, Middlesex, and Monmouth counties, the original papers are bound instead of being in envelopes. All original matters herein abstracted are to be found in the Secretary of State's office at Trenton.

'Andries Emans, father of said Benjamin, about Sept. 1, 1728, made a will and gave legacies to his son, and appointed Hendrick Emans one of the Executors. The other Executors have died, and Hendrick has refused to pay Benjamin his legacies.'

Somerset Wills, 1253 Q.

[In documents in the New Jersey Supreme Court, filed in 1758 and 1759, it appears that Andries Emans was of New Utrecht, L. I.; that according to his will his executors were Hendrick, Rebecca and Johannes Emans, John Vankirk and Teunis Polhemus; that his estate was to have been divided, after the death of Rebecca, his widow, among his children, Hendrick, Johannes, Andries, Benjamin, Jacobus, Ann, Sarah—another child, Rebecca, died before a settlement, Benjamin was single when his father died, but married later. Rebecca, testator's widow, died about Nov. 15, 1755. Johannes and Sarah had children, but were also deceased before 1759. Ann's husband was Jaques Denys; perhaps she was also deceased in 1759, when the Court in New Jersey directed a settlement of the estate of legacies, which Hendrick, as surviving Executor, still had in hand. An execution followed against Hendrick, who, like Benjamin, plaintiff in the suit, resided at Six-Mile Run, Somerset Co., N. J.]

INDEXES

I. INDEX OF NAMES OF PERSONS
II. INDEX OF PLACE-NAMES

Index of Names of Persons

NOTE.—The names of testators, intestates, etc., printed in heavy type in the preceding text, are not repeated in this Index, except in the case of some alternate spellings, since they are already placed in strict alphabetical order.

Where surnames or Christian names, in common use to-day, or at least with well-known spellings, are unusually or curiously used in the text, the current modern spelling is substituted in this Index in order to facilitate reference. A few exceptions are of some Dutch or German names, or where names are uncertain.
